

August Blanket-A-Long

~a Kelli Slack Pattern ~

Blankets are especially fun to make and when it comes to sampler blankets, the patterns and size are the key. This sampler of 24 patterns can be made to any size based on the number of squares you knit. As is, the blanket would be the perfect size for a baby, crib, or toddler blanket. Knit a second version of twelve of the squares and you have a nice size lap blanket. Continue to add squares and make your own 'knitted quilt' for your bed. It really is up to you!

For new knitters, this is a great way to work your way through more advanced stitches and "learn as you go." For more experienced knitters, you might find yourself refreshing old skills. This pattern is meant for beginning knitters to experienced knitters and all those in-between. Please read the entire pattern before beginning. Note: Knit your squares to six inches even if you don't bind off where I have indicated.
